Language: Python

External Libraries (Required): dpkt

Built-in Libraries: socket, sys

Instructions on how to run the program:

1. To run this program, make sure you have Python and the external library installed.

2. Open cmd and navigate to the directory where the program exists.

3. Run the following command: "py analysis_pcap_tcp.py <<path of pcap.file>> (You can move the pcap file to the same directory as the program or provide the path of the pcap file)

After you follow the above instructions, the analysis should be displayed in the cmd.